SCRIPT 01

New subscriber script

Follow these steps in order. Keep the chat casual and flirty, and move at the fan's pace.

1 Say hi (this can be automated)

Most fans who DM you first are already in the mood. A short greeting with their name, sent right after they subscribe, is usually enough.

Hiii [name] 💞 OR Heyy [name] 😘

2 Warm them up

Ease into sexual topics gradually. Don't rush it.

Can you be honest with me... do you like my tits or my ass more?

Tits / Ass

3 Make it personal

Have you ever stroked your dick to my [tits / ass]?

They say yes

Fuck, that's making me wet just talking about this hehe

They say no

Do I make you hard?

Both paths end on the same line:

I want you to stroke that hard, throbbing dick for me

4 Read the reply

"I'm already stroking" or "Yes"
Go to step 5 and send the PPV.

"No"
Keep the tease going. Don't send a PPV yet.

5 Send the first PPV

Send a nude image of whichever they picked, tits or ass.

Stroke that hard, throbbing cock to my [tits / ass], daddy

Nude image · matches the fan's pick · full price guide: optalent.org/#education $19.99

6 Climb the content ladder

Offer more from the vault, one step up at a time. Add "hmm" at the start or end. It sparks curiosity, and it sounds like you're unsure about sending it, which makes the content feel rarer.

Hmm... do you wanna see...? OR Do you wanna see... hmm 🙈

SCRIPT 02

PPV objection handling

If a fan doesn't buy a PPV, send one of these lines, then wait for them to reply.

- You're just like all the other guys
- You're just trying to use me 😒
- You're not actually interested in me, I get it.
- Ouch, I really thought you liked me :(

THE MOST IMPORTANT OBJECTION HANDLE

Silence.

If a fan doesn't buy a PPV, especially their first one at a low price, don't chase it. That isn't where the money is made. Leave it, and let them come back to you.

5% The real money comes from the top 5% of fans. They bring in about 90% of the money. Spend your time on the fans who spend, not on winning back one cheap PPV.

One line, then wait

Send one objection line, not all of them. Give the fan room to reply.

Know your top spenders

Check the fan's spend history before you push. Big spenders get the most attention.
